JOB POSTING

Starbright Children's Development Centre is situated in Kelowna, British Columbia, in the heart of the beautiful Okanagan Valley. The agency's legacy was inspired by a group of parents and a local pediatrician who united to create an organization that had one goal in mind – support for the achievement of family-centred goals in a safe and inclusive environment. Starbright's history embraces fifty-eight years of family-centred practice staying true to its roots. Families are the heart of our agency.

We acknowledge with respect and humility the land on which we work is the unceded territory of the Syilx (Okanagan) People

Starbright Children's Development Centre has the following job openings:

Inclusive Childcare Educators – Casual

This posting period runs from November 6, 2025 – November 21, 2025, at 4:00 p.m. The preferred start date is November 24, or sooner if able. It is a union position, requiring union membership enrolment, and follows the Community Social Services General Services Collective Agreement.

The Inclusive Childcare Educator provides extra staffing in community-based early learning centres to promote the inclusion of children from birth to six with developmental needs. The role of an Inclusive Child Care Educator includes the practice of culturally safe, trauma-informed, relational approaches to support the inclusion of children within their preschool or daycare settings. Development needs may include complex behaviour, autism, down syndrome, fetal alcohol, or deaf or hard of hearing.

Starbright assignments are within the boundaries of the Central Okanagan, as scheduled. Typically, work assignments may be scheduled within the range of 7:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. and clients are assigned by seniority and client needs, with locations variable. For a casual position, hours available depend on staff availability and client need.

All new staff are provided with mentorship, and professional development is an ongoing component of the position. The rate of pay for this position ranges from $25.95 per hour - $29.76 per hour as determined by the union classification. In addition, if eligible, an ECE wage enhancement is applied until September 30, 2025. Casual employees are paid an additional 10.6% of earnings in lieu of vacation and statutory holiday pay.

Here is a summary of the education and experience needed for this position:

- Successful completion of an approved accredited program in Early Childhood Education, including an Infant Toddler/Special Needs component,

- Current Community Care First Aid Certificate or equivalent,
- Current BC Certificate to Practice as an Early Childhood Educator or as an Early Childhood Educator Infant Toddler/Special Needs,
- Two years' experience working with young children with developmental delays and challenging behaviors is required,
- Access to reliable transportation properly ensured for business, and a valid current driver's license is required as client location is varied
- An equivalent combination of education and experience will be considered.

Employment in this position is contingent upon a successful criminal record check clearance. As per the Criminal Records Review Act, "Individuals working with children or vulnerable adults directly or potentially have unsupervised access to children or vulnerable adults must authorize a Criminal Record Check for their employer or authorized organization."
